Official Publication of Mira Mesa High School

Principal's Message

Good Afternoon, Marauders.

As you may have heard by now, out of an abundance of caution, San Diego Unified is delaying the first day of school.

Our first day of school will now be on Tuesday, August 22nd.

District officials made this decision based on the latest storm-related information from local officials. This storm is expected to impact our region most severely today, between 4 and 8 p.m., with strong winds and flooding expected in some areas, along with potential power outages and road closures. This may very well result in facility damage that may not become evident until Monday morning.

Postponing the first day will allow us to assess any impacts to school sites and to ensure that we are prepared to welcome students and families to the new school year.

We know the first day of school brings joy and excitement for students and staff. Thank you for your understanding and our collective desire to have the best first day of school possible for our students and staff.

Please take care of one another and follow emergency guidelines.

It is important that you stay connected and informed about public safety conditions in our district and community. Consider signing up for Alert San Diego and visit the County of San Diego website to boost your family's preparedness for this storm or any other emergencies.

Thank you for your partnership, and stay safe.

Principal Sabins
